Launch event European Inland Waterway Transport (IWT) Platform & New Year Reception

We are proud to announce the official launch of the European Inland Waterway Transport (IWT) Platform which started its activities early 2018.

Henrik HOLOLEI, Director General at the European Commission, DG MOVE, will deliver a keynote speech sharing his vision for the sector and congratulating the establishment of the platform.

We will take this opportunity to inform you more in depth about the organisation and the topics in which the platform is involved. The event will be closed by a New Year reception.

We look forward to welcoming you on behalf of the "founding fathers" and send you our best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
